

TELL ME BABY

BASED ON A TRANSCRIPTION BY UKULELE BOUDIER
OF "LOW COTTON" BY DJANGO REINHARDT

ARR + LYRICS : daddy stovepipe

[illegible]

Just tell me babe
Where did you stay
You didn't come home this morning, at the break of day

Tell me tell me baby
Where did you stay last night

Your clothes all tangled
Your hair undone
I can tell by that, you had a lot of fun

So tell me tell me baby
Where did you stay last night

I waited for you baby
Didn't know what to do
Wringing my hands, crying all night
Tell me tell me baby
Will you ever, be mine, once again

I wanna know, if we're good to go
You know I love you, ever more

So tell me tell me baby
Where did you stay last night
